Nativity of Our Lord Catholic Church

5900 McClellan,
Detroit, MI 48213

WORSHIP SCHEDULE:

Nativity:
Sunday 9:30 AM

July 03, 2022

Praised Be JESUS CHRIST!

Praised be Jesus Christ! Jesus sends the disciples out two by two to invite people into the Kingdom of God. Each week, we are going out inviting people to God, to hear the Word of God and come to know our community. Please call the parish office if the Lord is moving you to invite people. Or, if it seems the Lord is calling you to pray, please be praying for those we visit. It used to be when we would make home visits, almost everyone had a church home; now, many fewer people have a church. If Jesus and His Church have been good news for you, consider coming out and inviting people.

It was great being at Mass last weekend with the graduates being recognized and the chance to thank Fran Carnaghi for her years of service. I hope you had a good week.

Welcome to Mr. Joseph Taylor who this week begins his service as pastoral ministries coordinator for our parish. Mr. Taylor comes from St. Charles parish and has served the Church in many capacities. God bless you!

Evangelization. This week, we will take a break from home visits. Please pray that God calls many people from our several neighborhoods to worship at Nativity.

Next Sunday, we will welcome Deacon John Wright at Mass. Deacon Wright will also be preaching at Mass on Thursdays. I am grateful to the Archbishop for assigning Deacon John to our parish.

Mass during the week. Daily Mass is a wonderful way of staying in union with Christ. In our family, Mass is offered on Tuesdays at Sacred Heart at 5 PM, on Wednesdays at St. Augustine/St. Monica, and at our parish on Thursdays at 9 AM, each Friday at St. Charles at 11.

With a prayer,
Father Dan

This week's Gospel speaks about how the Lord appointed 72 others (disciples) to go before him in pairs to every town and places he intended to visit. What did the Lord want to accomplish by sending them out in pairs?
