

Hello Parish Family,

To begin, we wish everyone a wonderful Thanksgiving. Even though the way you celebrate the holiday will likely be very different from past years, our prayer is that you will find happiness and gratitude no matter how you observe Thanksgiving. On Wednesday evening, Brother Ray will say Mass privately to offer thanksgiving for our many blessings and he will, of course, have all of your intentions in mind.

Advent begins next Sunday and to help us focus in a prayerful way during the weeks leading to Christmas, we are sending a flyer that tells you about a series of podcasts featuring speakers from our Family of Parishes. Nativity's Joni Scott is one of the four presenters and we encourage you to make time each week for the podcast.

Finally, in compliance with the directive from the Archdiocese, the Parish House will be closed for the next two weeks. You can always reach us by phone and if you want to drop off food for the Pantry, we ask you to bring it to the back porch of the Parish House. We will check the porch regularly.

Please take good care of yourselves,

The Parish Team.
