Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

On this beautiful summer weekend, we are celebrating the baptism of two little ones in our Church. They will both be baptized at the 4pm Mass. They are:

Mina Faith Adams

Vincent Michael Canale

Mina is the daughter of Jarel and Christine Adams. If you remember, Jarel spoke on Father's day and Mina is the granddaughter of Hermenia Adams and niece to all those Adams' aunts, uncles and cousins.

Vincent is the son of Megan Grano and Michael Canale and the grandson of Maura Corrigan. Although the Canale family will be moving back to California, they wished to have Vincent baptized at Nativity rather than waiting to be baptized at the church in California.

We are delighted to celebrate these baptisms at Nativity and thank these parents for committing themselves to raise their children in the faith. We give our children the best we have in so many material ways and now we say, "this is the best we can give you from our spiritual life." We don't know the twists and turns of their lives but we're reminding them in this sacrament that the Christ who welcomes them at the font is the same Christ that will walk with them throughout their lives. It's our responsibility to help them to know Christ in a deep way and to remind them daily how much he loves them and how much we love them. If they are armed with that much love, they will be able to take on life in all its forms. They will be light for those around them and for the world. Welcome, Mina and Vincent! We send you into your lives with great love and look forward to witnessing the great things you will do for God and the world!!
