Hello Parish Family,

This week we want to bring several things to your attention.

This weekend we will be taking down the Christmas decorations in the church. This will take place after the 9:30 a.m. Mass. Thanks to the work of so many people who cleaned and decorated, our church looked beautiful for the Christmas season. Now, however, it is time to put everything away. Please consider staying after Mass to help with this effort. If many people will spare a little time, we can get the job done very quickly.

On Thursday of this week (January 13th), we will resume our Thursday at 11:00 a.m. Mass. The Mass will be in the church and it is our plan to sit in the sanctuary for Mass in order to create a smaller space. We hope to see you there.

Next Saturday, January 15th, we will have the funeral for Tom Davis. Many of you know Tom and his wife, Pam, and their family. Tom was a faithful member of the parish and a Minister of Service. The Family Hour will be at 10:00 a.m. and the Funeral will be at 11:00 a.m.

Also, we anticipate having the funeral for Bobby Dandridge, the father of Charisse Hurt and brother -in-law of Kim Milligan, in the near future. At this time, arrangements have not yet been completed. We will keep you informed.

Finally, thanks to the Evangelization Committee, there is a book waiting for you to take home, keep and enjoy. The book is entitled, Life Is Messy and it is written by best-selling author, Matthew Kelly. You will find your book on a table in front of either of the side altars.

Keeping you in our thoughts and prayers,

The Parish Team
